“ Chris, Kameron, Harper, Mr. and Mrs. Koehler;
Will was one of the few close friends I've had throughout my life. He was a generous, funny, honest, open, confident, caring, giving, trustworthy, respectful, selfless, obviously well-raised, and infinitely loyal friend, husband, father, son, and a truly proud member of the Koehler family. I'm sorry.

“ I'm saddened with the news and your family is in my prayers. Will was a good friend of mine in high school and share many fond memories with him at Lakeside, church camp, playing guitar, sports, Gamecock football, the lake, trips, etc. He will surely be missed.

*Charlotte,
I just heard of Will's death. I remember us sharing all of our "Will" stories when we compared stories about our boys. I am so sorry. In the days ahead, you will be in my thoughts and prayers. Love, Becky Carr*
