“ God is the only one who can heal human hearts following the death of a loved one. He does that by soothing words that promise to raise the death in his kingdom. “The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will come out.” (John 5:28) Those are the words of Jesus. Millions remember celebrities for decades after their death. God will surely remember the lowest of the righteous ones. We could have no greater assure than that.##imported-begin##Charles Reams##imported-end##

“ Dear Sheila and Meredith,
I am so sad to hear that we have lost Bill. I so enjoyed my visits with you both. It was always a nursing visit that I looked forward to. Bill always made me smile. I am just devastated that he did not get his heart. He was such a dear and caring person, such a unique personality. I know what a difficult time this is for you and my heart goes out to you. I also know that he is in a better place. My prayers are with you.
