“ Dear Family,

My mind was drawn back to the early 30s in Taylors as I read the obit of Ray this morning. We were neighbors and school mates in a very special time in history when everyone knew everyone else in that special town. All to soon we were adults and life's path took some of us in different directions and we seldom saw each other again and that was always when we were saying farwell to loved ones.

I will always be grateful for having known George, Lee, Corky, Ray, Fannie Nell and Aileen.

May Our Lord bless you all.
