“ I'm late to this conversation, I know, but news to China travels slowly from the neighborhood. Ms. Avery was my neighbor, honorary grandmother to my children, and "back door friend" to us from the day that we moved onto Park Road. She was a true life guide, a teacher, a friend, and an inspiration to me and to my family. She lived a good and long life and she will be sorely missed. I am so thankful that we got to visit with her and Mr. Brown last summer when we were home for a holiday. The block will never be the same without her.

“ Jimmy, Vicki, and other members of Willie's family. Gail and I was saddened when our nephew called this sfternoon to tell us that Willie Mae had died. We thought a lot of her since we met her through the Senior group at the Greer Church of God which we were members for many years and traveled a lot with them. Please know that we have the family in our thoughts and prayers. Even though we love them, Sometimes they are better off if they go on to be with other loved ones that have gone on ahead . She is now without pain. May God Bless. Doug and Gail Wilson
