“ I met Mrs. Ross only one time, but she made a lasting impression on me. She was just a tiny little woman but so full of energy I don't think I could have kept up with her. At the time I met her, she was volunteering her time to the local Red Cross. She was so happy and just lit up the room. As a result of the way she lived her life, her daughter Pam McKinney is just as energetic and giving as her mother.
