“ She was "Zeny" when we were in high school and lived in the same Kamuning, Quezon City vicinity. Many years after, Zeny and I met by chance at a mall in Virginia, both busy with work and with family. It was in 2011 that we again connected; it was at our very first high school reunion (for U.S. classmates); it was also her first time to be in Las Vegas; also, now, she is "Aida." We were a myriad older but, without a doubt, could not hide the thrill of seeing one another again. 2012 class-reunion in Virginia/DC — Aida opened her home for our Holy Mass and for a luscious crab fest after. We didn't know that this would be the last that time Aida could be with us. We missed her at our next (annual) reunions. To you, Aida, our loving prayers; rest well in our Lord's heavenly abode with your dear Ramon. Keep watch over your family and your friends — as we lovingly remember you in your sincerity, generosity, kindness and warm heartedness. Adieu from Annabelle and Cris Cosas

“ Dear ones: "...this I call to mind, and therefore I have hope: The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases; his mercies never com to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness" (Lamentations 3:21-23). In this very painful moment of separation after many stressful months, may the Holy Spirit strengthen you, "And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus" (Philippians 4:7). Loving you and admiring your faithful care for Aida, we have prayed every day for you -- and will even more now as you experience this loss. "The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you" every moment. Love from Lowell
