“ My sincere sympathy to you Gerald & family. Growing up together at Pleasant Grove Baptist , she & I were 2 of the favorite girls of Mr & Mrs Moss Black, the small grocery store owners that was located in front of Church. She was even named after Mrs. Black. She had a beautiful & gentle spirit & is now resting in Jesus’s arms. May God great all in the family with peace as she is finally resting as well. Sincerely your sister in Christ,
Karen Burnett Robertson 🙏🏻✝️

I am so sorry to hear of Zobia's death. She was a sweet friend of from early school days through high school. I lived in Greer until I went away to college (1964 after we graduated) then married. I lost track of Zobia. She was always a lovely sweet friend. God's peace and blessings to her family.
